

General terms and conditions L-IME

1. L-IME is a partnership under Dutch law, established in Eindhoven, consisting of two partners. A list of the partners of the partnership ('Partners') will be made available to the principal for inspection.
2. All assignments are, setting aside articles 7:404 and 7:407 paragraph 2 of the Dutch Civil Code, exclusively accepted and carried out by L-IME®, even if it is the express or tacit intention that an assignment is carried out by a specific person.
3. Any liability of L-IME® is limited to the amount covered under the professional liability insurance policy, increased by the amount of the excess which – according to the policy – is not covered by the insurers. If, for whatever reason, no payment is made by the insurance company, any liability will be limited to the amount invoiced by L-IME® for the order in question, with a maximum of € 10,000.
4. When engaging third parties, L-IME® will consult with the principal and will in any case exercise due care when selecting third parties. L-IME® will not be liable for any shortcomings of these third parties and is entitled, without prior consultation with the client, to accept the (general) terms and conditions of that third party, including any limitation of liability.
5. The legal relationship between L-IME® and the client, as well as those who make use of its services, is subject to Dutch law. Disputes will exclusively be settled by the competent court in 's-Hertogenbosch.
6. All stipulations in these general terms and conditions are not only made for the benefit of L-IME®, but also for the benefit of all "Dimensions" (as referred to above), respectively the shareholders and their directors, respectively all persons working for L-IME®, on any assignment, respectively, all persons for whose acts or omissions L-IME® could be liable for.
7. All claims against L-IME shall become null and void 2 years after the commencement of the day, following the day on which the injured party became aware of the damage and of the person responsible for it.
